Obituary

The death angel came into the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Brumblie, March 14, 1910 and took from their midst their little darling baby Myrtle. She was only a snowdrop flower, just plucked from the vine, yes from its father and mother. It's little place will be vacant in their home. A place which can never be filled. A voice is silent in their home, a voice they loved so well. Weep not father and mother for your darling is at rest. We know friends, words cannot comfort you. 'Tis only God who can ease your throbbing heart and aching brow. No one knows how quickly it was called from its mother's arms, to the flowery bed of rest. But with Jesus, your darling little Myrtle the snowdrop of your home is waiting for papa, mamma, sisters and brothers on that bright and shining shore.

Myrtle Ivy Brumblie was born in Osage county, Mo., January 4, 1908, died in Saline county March, 14 1910. Her age was two years, two months and ten days. Funeral services were conducted at their home by Rev. Henson, pastor of Christian Church at Slater. The body was laid to rest in the Concord cemetery. Mrs. J. M.

We are told that the present dry spell has about killed the remaining wheat.

Ninety in the shade is rather unusual for March 22d.
